thirty-five yards from Nebraska's goal. In the first half Ames clearly out-played Nebraska in every way, but in the second Nebraska braced up. Both sides fought hard and the battle extended from one end of the field to the other. Back and forth they went, each side losing the ball repeat-edly on downs. Nebraska scored once more edly on downs. Nebraska scored once more. The teams were on Ames' 35-yard line and Thorpe punted fifteen yards. Wiggins caught the ball on the run and carried it over the touch line. It was one of the most neatly executed trick plays ever attempted here. Thorpe kicked goal. Score: Nebraska, 12; Ames. 4.

The game ended at 5 o'clock, the ball being in the center of the field and Ames having just lost ten yards by a neal tackle of an end run. A miserably small crowd
